

Class 4
Science*Teeth and Digestion*A Choose the correct option.

- An adult has _____ teeth.
a. 20 b. 24 c. 28 d. 32
- Which is the hardest part of your toothache?
a. Root b. Gum c. Enamel d. Pulp
- Which of the following is the soft material of a tooth?
a. Dentine b. Pulp c. Enamel d. Root
- Which of the following has helped in changing milk into curd?
a. Protozoa b. Viruses c. Bacteria d. Fungi
- The outer portion of the tooth above the gum is called
a. Crown b. Root c. Enamel d. Pulp
- If plaque is not cleaned off the teeth, it can cause _____.
a. Hardening b. Whitening c. Shining d. Cavity
- At what age do we usually start to get permanent teeth?
a. Ninety-nine b. Sixteen c. Two months d. Six

B Find the odd one.

- Root, Digestion, Crown, Neck.
- Fungi, Virus, Plaque, Protozoa.
- Incisors, Canines, Bacteria, Molars.
- Stomach, Mouth, Small intestine, Oesophagus.

C Answer in one word.

1. Teeth which is used to bite our food. _____
2. The semi-solid waste is excreted through this. _____
3. Teeth that are used for tearing food _____
4. Holes formed in the tooth enamel _____
5. It mixes with the food and makes it soft _____

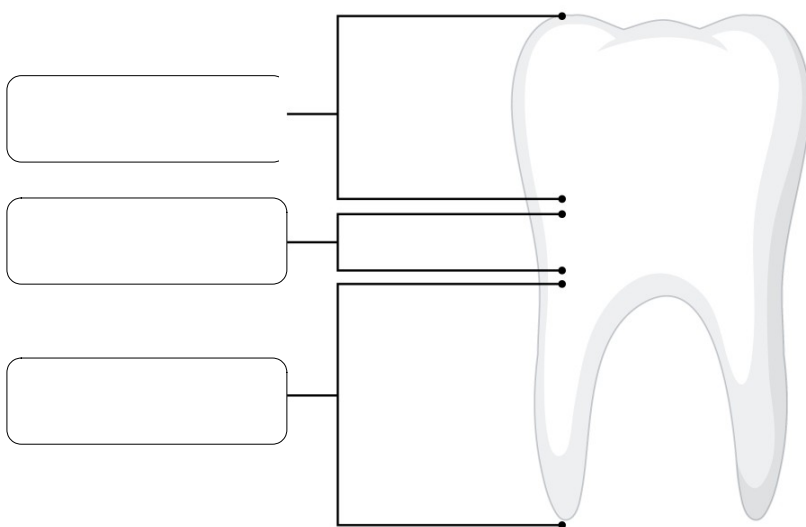

D Write the function of the following.

1. Teeth:- _____

2. Tongue:- _____

3. Pulp:- _____

E Label the parts of tooth.

Answers

A.

1. 32
2. Enamel
3. Pulp
4. Bacteria
5. Crown

B.

1. Digestion
2. Plaque
3. Bacteria
4. Oesophagus

C.

1. Incisors
2. Anus
3. Canines
4. Cavities
5. Saliva

D.

1. The main function of teeth is to bite and chew the food
2. Teeth help us to form words and speak along with the help of tongue.
3. Pulp supplies nutrients to the tooth and also sends signals to the brain in case of toothache.

E.