

Unit 2Life Around Us*Chapter 2.2:- The Cap-seller and the Monkeys*Let us read

- Once there was a man who sold caps. He carried many caps in a basket on his head. He was a cap-seller.
- One day, he slept under a tree. There were monkeys on the tree. They came down from the tree. They took away all the caps.
- The cap-seller woke up. He saw the basket was empty! He looked around and above. The monkeys were wearing his caps.
- The cap-seller shook his fists at the monkeys. They also did the same. The cap-seller scratched his head. The monkeys did the same.
- The cap-seller had an idea! He took off his cap and threw it into the empty basket.
- The monkeys also did the same. The cap-seller got all his caps back and went away happily.

Let us explore

Look at the insects, flowers, birds, animals and trees around your home.

Draw some of these and tell your friends more about them.

Ans. Do it your self.

Let us do

A. Help these animals find their homes

B. Ask anyone in your family to tell you a story about animals. Try to share the story in English in the class. Listen to the stories shared by your friends in class.

Ans. It's a hot summer day, and a thirsty fox sees a bunch of ripened grapes as he is passing through an orchard. To quench his thirst, he decides to eat the grapes. He moves back a few paces, runs as fast as he can, and jumps to reach the grapes. But he fails to get hold of the grapes. He makes several attempts to reach the bunch of grapes but fails every time. He finally gives up, consoling himself that the grapes are sour and hence not worth the effort.
