Unit 4
Life Around Us

Ch 1. A Show of Clouds

This lesson is about a poem where a child looks up at the sky and imagines different shapes in the clouds. The child sees a big white bear, a sailing ship, and an elephant waving its trunk. The poem highlights the joy of imagination and how clouds can look like different things.

New words

Lie	- To rest in a flat position.
Bear	- A large, strong wild animal with thick fur.
Sea	- A large body of salty water.
Sailing	- Moving across water in a boat or ship.
Waving	- Moving your hand or something back and forth.

Exercise

Let us speak

A. Say aloud

1. Sit outside your home, or in an open space and watch the clouds go by.
   Next day, tell the class what you saw.
   Ans. I saw clouds shaped like a rabbit, a big mountain, and a small fluffy cotton ball.

2. What are the colours of clouds? Tick the colours that clouds can be.

B. Answer the questions asked by the teacher.

Teacher: When you look up in the sky, what do you see?

Child 1: When I look up, I see _birds, clouds, and the sun._

Teacher: When you look down at the ground, what do you see?

Child 2: When I look down, I see _grass, flowers, and ants._

Teacher: When you close your eyes, what do you see?

Child 3: When I close my eyes, I see _darkness and sometimes colorful patterns._

Let us write

A. Answer the following questions.

1. In the poem, what animals did the child see as he looked up at the clouds?

    The child could see _a big white bear and an elephant waving its trunk._

2. What do you see in the sky during the day?

    Write any three things you see.
    1. The sun

    2. Birds

    3. Aeroplanes

3. What do you see in the sky at night?

    1. The moon

    2. Stars

Let us draw

Picture time

Let us listen

A. Repeat after the teacher.

The poem has the word 'back'.

Listen to your teacher and say the following words, with your teacher.

back
pack	lack	jack	rack
pick	tick	flick	thick
pluck	duck	muck	truck

What sound is common in these words?

Ans. The common sound in these words is "ck" at the end of the words.